

CATCH UP

You Read, You Know

A weekly Publication from the Vice Chancellor's office

Friday 3rd June 2011

Issue 5

KUPA constitution launched during the AGM

Kabarak University Partners Association held a successful AGM on

Dean of Business, the Director Post Graduate Studies & Research Friday 27th May 2011. In attendance was the University Chancellor H.E. Daniel T. Arap Moi the second president of the Republic of Kenya. Others were the Vice Chancellor, the Deputy Vice Chancellor, the Registrar Admin. & HR, the Registrar Academics & Research, the Dean of Science of Engineering & Technology, the Dean of Students, the Dean of Theology Education & Arts, the Librarian and the University Librarian. The University Chancellor launched the KUPA constitution and urged the members to contribute to the welfare of the university as spelt out in the constitution.

The VC commended the Chancellor for his continued support in physical development of the university. He noted that the university has kept tuition as low as possible. The VC added that the university will continue to provide quality labs, lecture halls, and conducive environment for learning for the students.

US and UK scholars visit Kabarak

Dr. William Lyle Wagner President and Dr. Ray Tallman Vice President of Olivet University

[with campuses in San Francisco, Washington DC and New York] visited Kabarak University on May 30th & 31st. They were received by the Vice Chancellor Prof. Dankit Nassiuma and members of University management. The US scholars gave lectures to the faculty and students and donated books on Islam to the library. The Olivet scholars and administrators were passionate about possible collaboration with Kabarak particularly on curriculum, staff and student exchange programs.

"... but in your heart set apart Christ as Lord ... " 1 Peter 3:15 (NIV)

Egerton castle team building

Were you at Lord Egerton castle this Madaraka day? If not then you missed out. The Kabarak University Christian union had a wonderful time socializing out of the normal university environment. They were joined by a team of outdoor activities experts from the students Discipleship ministry, under the leadership of Mrs. Alice Stickny. The team was accompanied by Pastor Samson Abong' the chaplain

Kabarak donates blood

On 2nd June, some Kabarak residents donated blood to the Regional Blood Transfusion Center which had pitched a tent at the Chancellor's court. It is expected to last for two days although according to Patrick Nge'the, the managing doctor of the group it may stay longer if there is a high turnout.

Kabarak Flame gets new student reporters

The Public Relations office came up with a team of 16 students who will be running Kabarak Flame, a student newspaper that deals with administration matters, student's affairs and the community at large. The team is made up of news writers, feature writers, photographers and graphic designers who are;

- 1) Omondi Otieno-Writer
- 2) Dorcas Kareithi-Photographer
- 3) Rebecca Akutekha-Writer
- 4) Jessy Muna-Graphic Designer
- 5) Daniel Maina-Writer
- 6) David Gitonga-Writer
- 7) Julie Matoke-Writer
- 8) Amos Kirui-Photographer
- 9) Maureen Chebet-Writer
- 10) Joseph Oyaro-Writer
- 12) Nicolas Kiprop-Writer
- 11) Vera Kawai-Writer
- 13) Wendy Apiyo-Writer
- 14) Eugene Mechumo-Graphic Designer
- 15) Ian Ogema-Writer
- 16) Bill Nyakundi-Writer & Cartoonist

University Diary

9th June- VC'S Talk, Auditorium

"...but in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord..." 1 Peter 3:15(NIV)